Brodde M. Stanford

Victoria, TX | 361-935-0430 | broddestanford@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

Pursuing an entry-level land surveying position to apply field observation, equipment troubleshooting, and accurate documentation experience while developing surveying skills and working toward Surveyor in Training (SIT) and Registered Professional Land Surveyor (RPLS) credentials.

EDUCATION

Texas A&M University | College Station, TX

Bachelor of Science in Geographic Information Science & Technology (GIST)
Expected Graduation: 2026 | GPA: 3.5

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Mud Logger | Edge Finance

May 2025 - Present

- Monitor drilling operations and analyze geological samples.
- Record lithology, gas readings, and drilling parameters to maintain accurate field documentation.
- Provide real-time information to engineers and geologists.

Field Service Technician | GIGA Energy

September 2023 - May 2025

- Maintain, repair, program, and troubleshoot technical equipment in the field.
- Operate forklifts, telehandlers, and other heavy equipment.
- Provide on-call technical support and resolve equipment problems.

Scale-House Lab Technician | Coastal Warehouse

May 2023 - August 2023

- Tested more than 30 grain samples daily.
- Oversaw more than 600 shipments weekly.

Shop Hand | C&D Auto Parts

May 2019 - May 2023

LEADERSHIP

Senior Event Officer | Texas A&M Corps of Cadets

August 2025 - Present

- Plan and coordinate events and carry out event leadership responsibilities.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

ArcGIS Field Maps | ArcGIS Pro
field geography class and advanced GIS courses

Computer and Programming Knowledge
a basic understanding of Java, Python, and HTML

Field Data Collection and Documentation
Equipment Maintenance and Troubleshooting
Heavy Equipment Operation

Technical Problem-Solving
A natural gas engine was having electrical issues and I found and fixed the issue.